AMERICAN HORSES IN ENGLAND.

American-bred horses cut a very respectable figure in England last year, though successful in capturing only one of what are considered the leading events of the English turf. The stake referred to is the Middle Park Plate, won by Caiman. Most of the success achieved fell either to Mr. Pierre Lorillard's separate stable or to that in which he was jointly interested with Lord William Beresford. The Horse Fancier has compiled the following account of the doings of all the American horses that won during the year. Mr. Lorillard's stable showing

Thus we find the American-bred animals winning a total of forty races worth $77,647.50 for the Lorillard-Beresford confederacy. Glancing at the more important successes, we find that in Mr. Loriliard's lot Myakka won the Lan-caster Nursery at Manchester, the First October and Prendergast at Newmarket, besides dead-heating for the Great Sapling Plate at Sandown Park. Dominie II. scored his principal successes in the Exeter, Granby Plate and Chereley at Newmarket. Elfin won the Burwell at Newmarket, the St. Albans Handicap at Nottingham, and the Newmarket October Welter Handicap. Sandia won the scored ber Welter Handicap. Sandia won the second year of the Thirty-fifth New Biennial at Ascot, of which he also won the first running in 1897. Chinook wen the Nassau Stakes, the big filly event of Goodwood week. Illogic's chief suc-cess was in the valuable Waterloo Selling Nur-Selling Plate at Hurst Park.

Of Lord Beresford's American-bred winners, Caiman is easily first in importance, as well as in money won, by his victory in the Middle Park Plate. Previous to this, he had won a very nice stake, the Clearwell, earlier in the same week, and a fortnight later he ran Frontier to a head for the Dewhurst Plate at nine pounds disadvantage in the weights. Tarolinta's brace Lewes, where she won the Astley Stakes and es on successive days at the St Meeting. Diakka won only the Esher (Handi-cap) Stakes at Sandown Park in the spring, as the handicappers took good care of him. Jiffy II. scored her principal success in the Etor Handicap at Windsor.

Mr. August Belmont won three races with the American-bred three-year-old Bridegroom II., by Rayon d'Or-St. Bridget, by St. Simon. The colt's most important success for the "scarlet, maroon sleeves, black cap' was the Peveril of the Peak Stakes at Derby. The total value of Bridegroom II,'s wins for Mr. Belmont was $3,685, but, as we all know, when the colt passed into the hands of Mr. L. de Rothschild, being thereafter known as Golden Bridge, she so three important successes in the First and Sec ond Limekiln at Newmarket and the Lanca shire Handicap at Manchester.

Mr. Richard Croker won the Hassocks Plate at Brighton with the American bred two-yearold filly Wantage Belle, by Loyalist—Wanda. The race was worth $930. Mr. Croker also won the Exning Plate at Newmarket with his colt Knickerbocker, who, being by Dobbins-Flirt, has a pedigree thoroughly reminiscent of the early days of the "Yale blue, gold tassel," in this country, although Knickerbocker was sired and foaled in England.

Mr. James R. Keene won the Dullingham Plate, worth $2,150, with his four-year-old colt $t. Cloud II., by Candlemas—Belle of Maynard, at the Newmarket Second July Meeting.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Friday's San Francisco Chronicle says "Vicksburg" Wood, well known on every track in the country, is in trouble. " burg" for the past couple of years has acted as betting commissioner for Dan Burns or Clarence Waterhouse, and sometimes placed a bet for President Tom Williams. He enjoyed the confidence of his employers and was liked among racegoers. Yesterday Deputy Sheriff among racegoers. Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Lane arrested "Vicksburg" at the track and ook him to the county jail in Oakland, where the charge of suspicion of felony is marked opposite his name. It is alleged that "Vicks-burg" bet "markers" with several bookmakers burg bet markers with several bookmakers to the extent of $300, claiming that the bets were for Tom Williams. The president of the Jockey Club cannot recall making any such bets and thinks that "Vicksburg" has been speculating on his own account. It is hard to understand how "Vicksburg" would have benefited, as the books do not usually pay the "markers" to betting commissioners.

George C. Bennett has fourteen well bred 2rear-olds in schooling at Memphis, of which Joe Wheeler, by Iroquois—Hildegarde, is at present deemed the pick. His list is as follows:

Chestnut colt, by Fiddlesticks—Niniveh.
Chestnut colt, by Meddler—Frolic Grace II. Bay celt, by De Beauvoir-La Sorella. Bay colt, by Ben Strome or Hindoodam of Logan). Bay colt, by Iroquois—Hildegarde.

Bay colt, by Quicklime-Monte Rosa (brother to Millstream).

Bay colt, by Longstreet—Highland Lassie.

Chestnut colt, by Loyalist—Cantolet. Chestnut colt, by Loyalist—Irony. Bay colt, by Cheviot—Khiva.
Bay colt, by Candlemas—Formosa.

Chestnut colt, by Prime Minister—Eliza Carr. Bay filly, by Albert—Iroqueena. Bay filly, by Wadsworth—Norma.

The Gentlemen's Cup at Ingleside must be won three times before it becomes the property of any of the competitors. Walter Hobart and Frank Skinner have each been twice first for the coveted trophy. The decisive contest will probably take place during the coming two weeks at Ingleside and speculation as to the result is already strong.

HORSES AT LEXINGTON.

Eastin & Larabie's lot are Ben Halladay, 6; MacLeod of Dare, 3; Kinley Mack, 3; Koumise, and the following two-year-olds: Chestnut filly, by Hanover-Mollie L, full sister to Ben Holladay; chestnut filly, by Star Ruby-May, by Falsetto; bay colt, by Order—Tongesee; chest-nut colt, by Watercress—Racemede, by Hin-doo; chestnut colt, by Golden Garter—Bella B., and bay colt, by Golden Garterby Luke Blackburn.

Of these youngsters I was most impressed with the Songstress colt, which is a half brother to Kinley Mack. He is not on a large scale, but has plenty of length and is a lathy, wiry, bloodlike colt, clean limbed and looks as if he is bound to be very smart. The Racemede colt is a big framed, big boned and very power-ful looking colt, a little bit coarse, perhaps, but a fine type of a lengthy, well developed youngster and one that may train into a good horse in time.

The Hanover—Mollie L. filly, which is a full sister to the long-distance champion, Ben Holladay, bears not the faintest resemblance to her famous brother, and is light-framed and rather weedy. The filly out of May H. is a lengthy, rakish sort and very speedy looking.

Capt. S. S. Brown's lot are Manaderee, 3, and the following two-year-olds, all by Troubadour: Bay colt, out of Mona, by Buckden; bay colt, out of Sunbeam (dam of Daily America); brown gelding, out of Sunlight; bay filly, out of Senorita, and bay filly, out of Eukonia. The Mona colt, which is short legged, well furnished, like his dam, is a hardy, tear and wear sort and looks certain to prove useful.

The Sunbeam colt has more quality and finish to him than his brother, Daily America. but while he is a racy sort he has neither the substance nor the hard game look of the Reali-zation winner of 1893. The Senorita filly is a mooth turned thing, but lacks both the range and substance of her famous dam.

J. E. McDonald's four, all two-year-olds, are, bay colt, by Deceiver—Seafood, by King Ban; bay filly, by Candlemas—Enquiry; bay filly, by St. Savior—Mamie B., by King Ban, and bay colt, by Candlemas—The Belle. This colt, which is out of Rensselaer's dam, is, I think, one of the best looking sons of Candlemas have ever seen. He is a lengthy, nicely balanced horse and full of quality. I saw him out at exercise and he is a beautiful actioned colt, with a long reach and traveling close to the ground. I was very much impressed with this colt.

He is a decidedly mannerly, high class look ing youngster, and while he has not been asked a whole lot he has shown enough to make his trainer feel very sweet on him. As he is well entered in stake events, I shall watch his developments with considerable interest, and I will be much disappointed if he does not prove one of the best of the get of a horse whose success in the stud I predicted years ago.
The Candlemas filly, out of Enquiry, is a rakish, speedy looking miss, and the colt out of Seafood is a neat, smooth turned, useful sort. "Kelston" in Morning Telegraph.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is given out that hereafter the New Orleans over-night handicaps will be $400 in value instead of $250, as heretofore, and it is hinted that perhaps the other purses may be raised to $300 presently, a token that the club is doing well and willing to give a slice of its prosperity to the horse owners.

An average of twenty-one books shows that the betting ring at Oakland is a thriving in-

Winner—B. g, by Lew Weir Maggie B.
Off at first break to a fair start. First two in a hard drive. The leaders fought it out all the last furlong. Sir Blaze should have won but O'Connor outgenerald Mason. The riding decided the race. Belle of Dublin closed a big gap. Mrs. Jimmie could not untrack herself. Harvey and Nan Dora ran to the notch.
Scratched—Lady Roller, 100; Nellie O'Neill, 100.
Fintan, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Sir Blaze, place, 7 to 10. Belle of Dublin, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. g, by The Bard—Beth Broeck.

Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; the next five were driving. Celtic Bard got up in the final sixteenth. He ran a resolute race, far above his recent average. School Girl tired at the end and swerved into the heavy going. Pontet Canet got the place in the final stride. Miss C. closed a big gap. Watch both. Demosthenes stopped to nothing.

Celtic Bard, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Pontet Canet, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1.

Winner-B. c, by Morello-Santella.

Start good. Won rather easily. Martello was best and ran a good race. He was lucky, is a mudlark and a stayer. The mellow going suited None Such. He closed stoutly. Nonchalance got a bad ride. The mud fits him, too. Espirando ran bel w the notch. So did Ulm. The latter was poorly ridden and is best on hard going. Colonel Dan is a coward. Cardwell and Tenricka can both do better.

Overweigh's—Nonchalance, 4 pounds; Ulm, 3; Oakleaf, 2; Cardwell, 1.

Martello, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. None Such, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Nonchalance, show, 3 to 1.

Winner B. f. by Clarendon—Voltando.
Start good. Won very easily. Clarando was best in the thin mud. She is at her best in such going and is improving. Good Hope ran a good, honest race. She was not well managed. Neither was Cyril. He closed a lot of ground and was less than well ridden. Watch this fellow on soft going. Sybaris is a mudlark, too. When beaten he was eased up. Watch him. Mainstay was overweighted.

Scratched—Midas, 120; Dunois, 120,
Overweights—Clarando, 4 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c, by Great Tom—Endurance.
Start straggling. Won ridden out. Stamma was lucky, well ridden and best as weighted and in the going. He stays well. Robert Bonner ran a good honest race and was fortunate on the turns. Elidad was off badly and cut off at critical points. The race will benefit him and he will be heard from if the track continues heavy. Frank Jaubert seemed to do his best. Tom Cromwell dislikes mud. Peter Weber had no chance.

Start good. Won handily. Montgomery reveled in the mud and always held the others safe.
O'Connell showed improvement over his last race and was much the best of the others. Sweet William ran his race but suffered from weak handling. Pat Murphy was outclassed but is good in mud and in condition to win when placed right. Wyoming exhausted himself by running away twice before the start. Bellicoso wants a dry, fast track.
